

Our New Cross Bookshelf Project

Artmongers are making a new participatory artwork for the front of what used to be the New Cross Library and we want you to be involved. It will be an outdoor digital print of a fictional bookshelf including made up and favourite books. It will also feature some amazing books from the archive.

Here is what you need to do if you'd like to participate:

1. Complete the "Your book" sheet and help us create your book on our bookshelf. You can tell us about a book you love, or make up the cover of one which has not been written yet. Or both.
2. Help us choose a new name to replace New Cross Library
3. Then hand in your sheet at the library or email it to artmongers.studio@gmail.com
